Local News.

GUILDHALL.
The Essex county jail is again empty. Timothy Chancy the last occupant having paid his fine and costs has been released.

The tea meeting held by the M. E. society here Tuesday evening was not a decided success, by reason of the storm, but few being present.

The debating club having finished the discussion of the question of whether the annexation of the Canada to the United States would be beneficial to both countries, on Friday evening last, decided against annexation. The next question for discussion is, Resolved that the invention of Railroads has not been a benefit to mankind.

"The dearest spot on earth," has at last been found. It is located in the store that don't advertise.

MAIDSTONE.

Mr. J. B. Brown of Northumberland has a force of thirty-six horses and seventeen pairs of oxen, drawing logs to his mills in this town, and timber from the mill to the railroad. He shipped thirty-six car loads to the Portland and Boston markets during the week ending Jan. 18. He intends to make his shipments for the month of January one hundred car loads in all.

WEST CONCORD.

W. W. Eaton, Esq., who has been in the practice of law for the past year at Greensboro, has located in this village, and is now ready to settle disputes. West Concord ought to be a good place for one lawyer at least.

In this town are fifteen persons over eighty years old, three of them being over ninety. J. Russell is ninety-three, his wife ninety-one, and Mrs. Varney ninety.—Union.

LUNENBURG.

For the Essex County Herald.

The Editor of the Coos Republican reminds us of a landlord who in olden times kept a hotel on the route from Connecticut to Canada. A gentleman used to stop over night at this hotel, on his way to and from Canada, every winter. The landlord being rather inquisitive, and a little jealous withal, asked the traveller what his business might be in Canada that he should go so regular every winter. The gentleman replied: "I draw two pensions in Canada."
"What might they be for, and how much do you draw?" enquired the landlord.

The gentleman replied: "I draw two pensions; one is for minding my own business, and the other is for letting other people's business alone."

A LUNENBURG SUBSCRIBER.
Dr. Hiram A. Cutting will lecture on the "Microscope and its Revelations," in the M. E. Church in this town, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 28th. The proceeds of this lecture will be given for the purchase of furniture for the parsonage. This lecture is highly spoken of by the press and people.

The Ball at the Chandler House on Wednesday evening was a decided success. It was well attended, and the Concord Band added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening by their faultless playing. The supper was everything that could be wished and all spent a very enjoyable time and separated greatly satisfied with everything, themselves included.

ISLAND POND.

The dwelling house occupied by Robert Kilpatrick, in this village, was burned on the morning of the 23d inst., with its contents. Mr. K. being at the time sick with the typhoid fever, barely escaped with his life.

J. M. Bartlett and E. C. Robinson, for several years past in trade in this place, have dissolved partnership. Mr. B. retiring from the firm. The business is to be continued at the old stand by Mr. Robinson. Mr. Bartlett it will be remembered represented Essex County in the State Senate at the last term of the Vermont Legislature.

An effort is being made, with prospective success, to raise money to build an Episcopal Church in this village. We are informed that a society is already formed and quite a sum subscribed toward the erection of the church.

The fact that three hundred cars have been at one time in waiting for inspection by the officers of the Customs at this place, affords something of an idea of the business performed at this port of entry.

PROLIFIC.—The attention of the crowd gathered at the station last Tuesday morning on the arrival of the down train, was attracted to a woman apparently not more than 35 years of age, with ten children, all her own, whose ages ranged from one to seventeen years. As they filed out from the car to the baggage room, sized with military exactness, their appearance elicited frequent remarks from the by-standers.

C. W. Pierce, a partner in the Norton Mills Co., has retired from the firm, we understand.

On the 21st, two deserters from an English ship were found in a box car of a freight train going east. They had been concealed in the car for 24 hours and one of them had frozen his feet badly. Their confinement and suffering from the cold becoming unbearable, they made a noise which attracted the attention of a switchman, who called Mr. Currier, Custom House officer, who broke the seal of the car and released them. They supposed, before being let out, that they were still in Canada, and consequently expected to be returned to service, but could not endure their confinement and the cold longer. When told that they were in free America, their joy was unbounded.

A very exciting horse race took place on the ice last Tuesday afternoon between Judge Heaton's b. g., and William Cheney's Buckskin. Buckskin won the race in two straight heats; time 2:16! Where is Goldsmith Maid?

ORLEANS COUNTY.

CHARLESTON.
Mrs. E. H. Robinson has moved into her new and very pleasant millinery rooms, where she will continue the business on a larger scale.

Canker rash has again made its appearance in this place to the terror of every one who loves the children. Jason D. Niles has within five weeks buried two very promising little daughters, all the children he had. They were among the first attacked with this disease and were sick but a few hours.

Rufus Barnard has sold the old blacksmith shop, where since he was a boy he has struck the sounding blow, to H. Moulton of Newport, and "Barnard's Shop" with strict temperance in the village, are among the things that were.

Dr. S. S. Simons of Ogdensburg, N. Y., has located at the East Village in place of Dr. E. W. Clark who has recently moved to Derby.

LANCASTER, N. H.

Lung Fever and Pneumonia prevail in this village and vicinity at the present time to an alarming extent among the old and middle aged people, and quite a number of deaths have already occurred.

A party left here on the 19th, for Dixville Notch or vicinity, Deer hunting. The party consisted of M. J. Cole and D. F. Hunt, of Boston, F. P. Walker and W. J. S. Dewey of Lancaster, and Roswell Walker of Whitefield.

H. S. Turner has sold his stock of periodicals, &c., to Charles Nutter who will continue the business at the same place, in the P. O. Building.

There is to be a Cotillion Party at the American Hall on Thursday Jan. 30th. Music by Bigelow and Hart's Quadrille Band, assisted by H. H. Lovejoy of Littleton. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

GORHAM, N. H.

The most of our street lamps are more ornamental than useful. Through these dark evenings and this slushy walking we have observed one lamp only lighted to guide pedestrians, and that was in front of Mr. Leavitt's periodical store. An Irishman said once, "I would be a very nice thing if the moon would only shine on dark nights!"

"Dick Baker," the pugilist, from Bangor, Me., has been giving a few exhibitions here in the sparing line.

Gorham aqueduct works are more of a nuisance than a convenience to those who are confined somewhat to its use. Some families who depend upon a supply of its water are compelled to "go dry," and all on account of "somebody's to blame."

Our day school is flooded with scholars, and every term earnestly impresses our people with the necessity of a graded school. Justice cannot be done by the wisest and most astute tutor to any such number as attend the present term, which is over eighty. "A word to the wise is sufficient!"

Mixed hard-wood is selling quite readily at $4.50 per cord, (short measure)!

The community mourn the loss of Mrs. Lary, wife of Mr. A. G. Lary of the "Lary House." She was highly respected and will be missed greatly by the summer travel who have visited them for so many successive years. It is a remarkable coincidence that an aged brother, Mr. John Chandler, living in Dummer, died at nearly the same hour of the same day.

Our merchant, Mr. John F. Briggs goes in for big things. For years past the tide of fortune seems to have set in his favor, whether in buying and selling well bred horses or any other kind of trade. Within the past year he has successfully tried his hand at hog-raising, and now comes to the front with a list that is a stunner to all raisers of swine. The aggregate weight of three, killed within a year, is 1929; their several weights being 600, 618 and 711. How is that for high? Now let us hear from other gruntners, as this amounts to a swine challenge. The hogs referred to were of the white Chester breed.

A Williamstown man wants a wife: "She must be short, thick-set, with curly hair and keen black eyes. Her age I am not so particular about, say anywhere from 35 to 40."

N. H. Items.

One of the Freshmen at Dartmouth is fifty years of age. He is a retired clergyman who intends, as he says, "to finish up his mortal career with a college course."

As the train on the Portland & Ogdensburg road left North Conway recently, a large deer sprang upon the track before the train. It ran on for about two miles, and then attempted to go up an incline by the side of the road, when he slipped and rolled over. As he fell, Mr. John Hamilton, the express messenger on the train, jumped off and beat the deer's throat before it could rise. It was very large and fat and weighed 109 pounds.

Joseph Currier, a well-known and eccentric old man at Conway, died a few days since. Some years ago he had his grave dug and bricked, saying that he would probably die in winter, when it would be hard to dig it.

K. W. Palmer, a North Havenhill boy, has been trying his hand at rat-killing. A small army of these animals took up their winter quarters in a mow of newly-threshed straw, and in a two hours' battle he killed 102; the total number footed up 156, and just filled a half bushel.

Young Piper, who burned Noone's woolen mill, at Peterboro', has been sentenced to State Prison twenty-five years. The Regan boy has been discharged.

The roof of the carriage house connected with the Willard Hotel, at Laconia, was crushed in by the great weight of snow upon it on Thursday morning, damaging carriages and sleighs to the amount of $1000.

A horse weighing 1200 pounds, belonging to James Lewis of Milford, got loose in the stable one night last week and fell through a scuttle hole 3 by 4 feet into the cellar. There being no egress from the cellar but by the hole through which he fell and a small window, Mr. L. was at his wits' end how to elevate him. But it was accomplished by cutting out the floor timbers and floor, and building an inclined platform, over which he safely passed, showing no serious injury by his fall.

The Lake Village Times gives an account of a double elopement from the outskirts of that village, without using names. The wife of one of the parties is left in possession of three children, a cottage house, and a small carriage manufactory.

A. S. Melvin, of Tilton, a saloon keeper, went to the Winnepesaukee River, near his place, last Friday evening, for a pail of water, and being in an intoxicated condition, as is supposed, he slipped in and was drowned. Search was made for him, but his body was not recovered until about noon, Sunday. He had $250 and a watch on his person. He was about forty years of age, and leaves a wife. He formerly lived in Concord.

No less than twenty-three farms in the town of Canaan were recently advertised for sale in one paper. Outsiders would naturally infer that that land does not flow with milk and honey.

Dr. Howe's Advertisement.

Be not Deceived—God is not Mocked.

We believe all that try to make out that Christ is no more than a good man, that he can be proved to be true the Bible is not to be relied upon nor God's plan. All that tend to me act that our Lord and saviour is no more than a good man are deceived. Which causes many to grope.

The Lord tells us in the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me. This will plainly see. There are many such leaders now in the temperance cause trying to put up the one and down the other. All such leaders should be heeded, but let us believe the Lord is a present saviour, to save us from all iniquities—this I feel to say to sisters and brothers.

My strife is to be temperate in all things; some say we make drunkards out of our stuff. We are willing any one should come and prove it, and if it is so out of it bring. We make bitters, syrups, liniments, root beer, and keep a good assortment of dry stuffs on hand.

I am striving to be ready for the coming of the Lord, and it looks nigh, then we shall be at God's command.
